THE COURT REPORT

Ulises Reyes entered a plea of guilty to Assault With a Dangerous Weapon for an incident in the 1400 block of Irving Street, NW (PSA 412, F-4436-03)

On February 4, 2004, Ulises Reyes, age 31, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to Assault With a Dangerous Weapon. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on July 26, 2003, at approximately 7:43 p.m., defendant Reyes entered the La Casa Multicultural Center located in the 1400 block of Irving Street, NW. The defendant approached the complainant, produced a concealed knife and inflicted multiple non-fatal stab wounds to the complainant's face and body. The defendant was apprehended a short distance away by a security guard of the facility where the crime occurred. Sentencing is scheduled for April 6, 2004 before the Honorable John H. Bayly, Jr.

AUSA George Pace indicted the case and represented the government at the plea hearing.

Moris Lazo, age 21, pled guilty to Armed Robbery complainant in front of 10th and Quincy Streets, NW (PSA 409, F-136-04)

On February 24, 2004, Moris Lazo, age 21, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to Armed Robbery. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on January 8, 2004, at approximately 1:53 a.m., the defendant and two other individuals robbed the complainant in front of 10th and Quincy Streets, NW. The complainant, a cab driver, picked up the defendant and the other two individuals in the Dupont Circle area around 1:30 a.m. The defendant asked to be taken to 13th and Randolph Streets, NW. The defendant was seated in the front seat and the other individuals were seated in the back. The individuals in the backseat started punching the complainant and the defendant pulled out a knife and demanded money. The complainant told the defendant that the money was in his pocket, and the defendant took the money out of his pocket. The complainant was able to escape from the cab and last observed the cab driving down 10th Street, NW. The complainant flagged down some officers who were in the area. The defendant and the other individuals were eventually stopped in the 3600 block of 13th Street, NW. Sentencing is scheduled for April 20, 2004 before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr.

AUSA Robert Little investigated the case and represented the government at the plea hearing.

Roque Elias Lopez, age 23, pleads guilty to assault with a dangerous weapon and other related offenses before the Honorable Wendell Gardner. (PSA 413, F-3019-03)

On February 27, 2004, Roque Lopez, age 23, of Washington, DC, pled guilty to Assault with a Dangerous Weapon and Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence or Dangerous Offense. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on May 24, 2003, at approximately 1:25 a.m., the defendant, Roque Lopez, shot at four individuals as they sat in a car--one bullet striking a man in the leg. None of the individuals in the car knew the defendant and were simply minding their own business when they were confronted by the defendant and his friends outside of 2922 Sherman Avenue NW, Washington, DC. The four individuals were seated in a Honda eating take-out and talking. The defendant and two friends pulled up in a red Toyota Celica next to the Honda. The defendant was driving the Toyota. One of the individuals in the red Toyota asked the individuals in the Honda, "What gang are you with?" They replied, "none." The defendant then said something to the effect that he was "STC", referring to the Hispanic gang "Street Thug Criminals." The individuals in the Honda attempted to ignore the defendant. In response, the defendant pulled out a revolver, leaned over his front seat passenger and pointed the gun at all four occupants of the Honda. The defendant then started shooting. Although, the defendant fired the revolver three times, he only hit one person--the driver of the Honda in the leg. The defendant and his friends then fled the area in the red Toyota Celica. One of the individuals in the Honda called 911 and gave the police dispatcher a description of the car and the suspects. Within approximately 30 minutes of the shooting, members of the MPD gang unit spotted a red '86 Toyota Celica driven by the defendant with two other Hispanic male passengers. The police pursued the car and stopped it at 14th and Ogden. Sentencing is scheduled for August 13, 2004 before the Honorable Wendell Gardner.

AUSA Diane Lucas investigated the case.

Charles Shepard was sentenced to 5 years incarceration for an Attempted Robbery of a D.C. resident in the 5500 block of South Dakota Avenue, NE and for his subsequent failure to appear in court. (PSA 405, F-4628-02)

On February 27, 2004, Charles Shepard, age 35, of Washington, DC, was sentenced to a total of 5 years incarceration and three years supervised release for his involvement in the attempted robbery of a D.C. resident in the 5500 block of South Dakota Avenue, NE and for his subsequent failure to appear in court. According to the government's evidence, on December 27, 2001, the defendant assisted an unknown individual in an attempted armed robbery of the complainant. On that day, the complainant was riding with the defendant in the defendant's car. Unbeknownst to the complainant, the defendant telephoned an unknown individual and the two agreed that the defendant would drive the complainant to a parking lot in the 5500 block of South Dakota Avenue, NE where the two would rob the complainant. When the defendant drove to the parking lot the unknown individual got into the backseat of the defendant's car. While the defendant drove, the unknown individual strangled and pistol whipped the complainant demanding his money. During the assault, the pistol fired piercing the roof of the car and jammed. In that small window of opportunity, the complainant jumped from the car and ran for help. When asked by police what happened the complainant stated, "Shep set me up!" Subsequently, the defendant was arrested. On November 8, 2002, the defendant was present for a status hearing where a judicial officer ordered the defendant to return on December 8, 2002. The defendant acknowledged his obligation to return on that day by signing written notice. On December 8, 2002, the defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to appear and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

AUSA Michelle Jackson represented the government at the sentencing hearing.

Jason Williams, age 29, was found guilty of Aggravated Assault before the Honorable Thomas J. Motley. (PSA 407, F-505-03)

On March 1, 2004, Jason Williams, age 29, of Washington, DC, was found guilty to Aggravated Assault. According to the government's evidence at trial, on January 17, 2003, the victim was walking on 9th and Crittendon Street on his way home when the defendant, Jason Williams drove by. The victim waved at him, since they knew each other from the neighborhood and the defendant turned around and called him. The victim crossed the street and approached the defendant. As another car passed and called the defendant's name, the victim turned his head and the defendant started punching him repeatedly in the face. The victim fell to the floor and was able to flee the scene. He ran back to his house on 9th and Decatur St. The defendant chased him back and as the victim approached the house he fell on the steps. The defendant then fled the scene. Sentencing is scheduled for March 11, 2004 before the Honorable Thomas J. Motley.

AUSA Edna C. Rosario-Munoz represented the government at trial.

Douglas Carranza pled guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter before the Honorable Geoffrey M. Alprin. (PSA 402, F-1957 -01)

On February 13, 2004, Douglas Carranza, age 18, of Washington, DC, was sentenced to four years incarceration for Voluntary Manslaughter. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on March 25, 2001, at approximately 2:00 p.m., in the 1300 block of Park Road, NW, Washington, DC, the decedent approached several males and began arguing about a fight that had occurred between him and Luis Flores, the defendant's uncle, on the preceding night, inside a rooming house, in which both were residents. The defendant's father, upon seeing the injuries of Flores had sustained during the earlier fight, began punching the decedent. Then, five males, including the defendant, followed the decedent across the street to a parking lot. During the fight, the males were clearly getting the better of the decedent. The defendant pulled out a knife and began swinging it wildly at the decedent, apparently cutting Flores' hand. The decedent grabbed onto the wrist of the hand in which the defendant wielded the knife, in an attempt to prevent the defendant from stabbing him. However, Luis Flores, then punched the decedent in the face, causing him to lose his grip of the defendant. The defendant, then stabbed the unarmed decedent in the chest. The defendant threw the knife toward the rear of 1309 Park Road, NW, and all of the involved males ran inside 1302 Park Road, NW. An uninvolved eyewitness to the argument, the fight and the stabbing, dialed 911 for the police and ambulance.

AUSA Gary Wheeler represented the case at the plea hearing and sentencing hearing.

David Wiley, age 57, pled guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter in the death of Lawrence Foster in September, 2001 (PSA 407, F-06818-01)

On February 2, 2004, David Wiley, age 57, of Washington, DC, pled guilty to one count of Voluntary Manslaughter. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on September 2, 2001, at approximately 10:50 a.m., the owner of the house located in the 1000 block of Monroe Street, NW, found the decedent unconscious on his front porch. The decedent was identified as Lawrence Foster. An autopsy was performed on the decedent and the cause of death was blunt force trauma to the head and numerous stab wounds to the neck, and the manner of death was ruled as a homicide. A witness was located and he indicated that he had observed the defendant engaged in an argument with the decedent.

On September 4, 2001, while in the 3500 block of 13th Street, NW, an officer spotted the defendant sleeping in a white, 1986 Chevrolet Cavalier, in an alley across the street from the crime scene. At that point, they noticed what appeared to be blood on the defendant's shoes, shirt and pants. It was later determined that the blood on the defendant's shoes belonged to the decedent. Sentencing is scheduled for April 2, 2004.

AUSA Gary Wheeler investigated the case and represented the government at the plea hearing.
